Foreword

Life is a swirl of people, ideas, goals, setbacks, and achievements. Life at Venice High is a smaller swirl within the larger maelstrom of humanity. Every race, creed, and color, every shade of opinion, and every aim in life are represented in this smaller swirl that composes our school.

At Venice High, students learn to develop their ideas and set their goals, and to take disappointments along with successes. We are fortunate in having excellent facilities for achieving a well rounded education. At the same time we learn to live with others, to give, and to take. We learn to ride with the stream when that is right; we learn to stand against the current when that is right; and, most important, we learn to set our own course, rowing not drifting.

Chiron Sweater Day

It was March 6, 1964. The Student Body was waiting. Did good things really come in small packages? Some were very doubtful; the Senior Bee Class, however, knew better.

As a black limousine approached Watson Field, 187 excited B-12's, all holding bags, ran to meet it. One clumsy girl dropped her bag and exposed a bright coral sweater. The secret was out!

The Beatles (Jary Danible, Richard Atkins, Mike Weaver, and Dennis Ellman) appeared, getting out of the car, and sang for the Student Body.

Class President Ron Pace then announced the new class name and color, and sweaters were pulled from their bags. A gasp arose from the assembled throng as the Chirons donned their OLIVE GREEN sweaters.

The class cheerleaders then led the class song and the beautiful Chiron flag was flown for all to see. The small but hard working Chiron Class shall long be remembered on the Venice High Campus. They proved that good things DO come in small packages!

Trevisian Sweater Day

As the student body filled up the stands the afternoon of October 9, they saw the largest senior class in the history of Venice High. This great group was seated, waiting to assert itself, its name, its color, and its individuality. The class presented personalities from Japan, England, Russia, and Teenage America who unanimously agreed that the Senior B class displayed the greatest potential and ability of any class in the memory of Venice High.

Suddenly a truck led and followed by Volkswagens circled the track, and as armed guards protected it, a large egg was removed from the truck. The egg cracked, revealing a green baby, illustrating the worth of the A-12 class in comparison to the Senior B's. The "thing" was then taken away. The class president marched to the center of the field. Upon the raising of an oar, symbolic of our Venetian heritage, the entire class streamed onto the field. The oar was then pointed toward the heavens, and out came 500 orange sweaters. Signs displayed the class name, Trevisians, taken from the city of Treviso, Italy, indicating the desire of the class of Summer, 1965, always to remain close to Venice in thought and action, now and in the future. As a grand finale, an orange flag with the class emblem, closely resembling that of Venice High, was hoisted up the victory flag pole, and the class song was sung.

WINTER PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The goal of the Student Government of W'65 was the involvement of every Venetian in at least one extra-curricular activity. With this aim, Student Government successfully presented a broad program of drives, campaigns, assemblies, and student activities.

This semester's student Government worked continuously to strengthen democracy at Venice High. The House of Representatives was completely reorganized to provide it with more extensive legislative powers. Major amendments were made in the election code and the Student Court plan. In continuing an election year tradition, Student Government planned and accomplished a straw-vote election.

Student Government presented a series of activities designed to unite the student body behind our Western League championship football team. Included were the Pep Club, Slogan Day, Blue and White Day, and a sports rally. The "Athlete of the Week" plan was also initiated and proved very effective.

The semester was enlightened by frequent assemblies, such as the hilarious Band Show; a very unusual and meaningful human relations assembly, the first of its type presented in a Los Angeles high school; and a fashion show displaying the latest in teen wear.

While we can be proud of the accomplishments of this semester's Student Government, we must never forget that they were made possible only by the support and enthusiasm of all the members of the student body.

Richard Atkins

SUMMER PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Student Government of Summer, 1965, took great strides forward to accomplish its endeavors. We began with the desire to be worthwhile in our accomplishments and constructive in our goals. We began with hoping to awaken all students and all teachers to the benefits of a student government. We began with an ideal; to encourage, to stress, and to involve the individual student and his individual importance to Venice High in all school activities.

This Student Government improved the B10 Orientation, Activity Card Drive, and Installation Assemblies as well as providing a Talent Show and other entertainment assemblies, including a noon "Battle of the Bands."

Student Government changed the service clubs to allow a greater and more equal chance for students to attain membership.

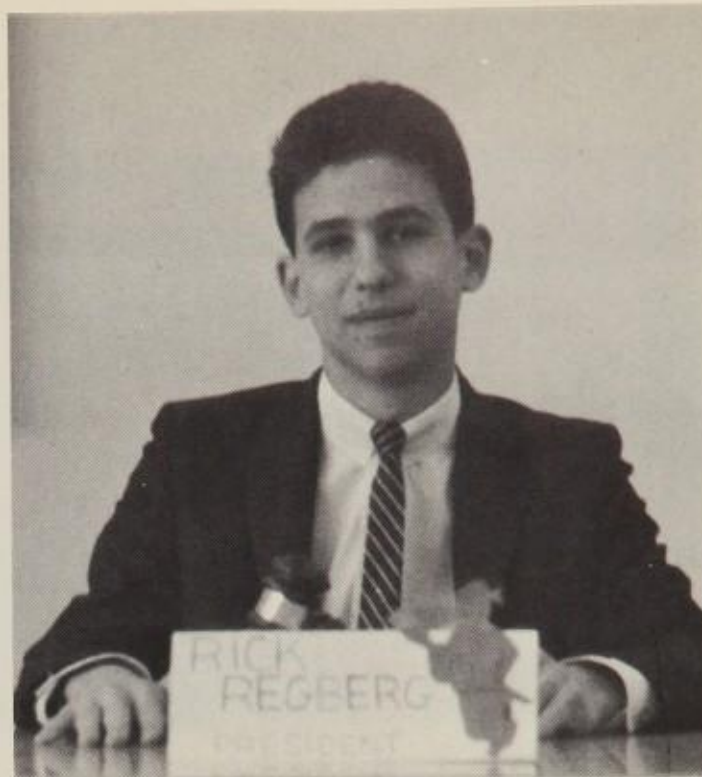

We established a Brotherhood Board. We increased the recognition of Delphians, revised Student Court, and sponsored a clean grounds program that brought noon music and a "White Tornado Week" to Venice.

To improve communications we invited classes to Student Government, held press conferences, and had a suggestion day in which students were encouraged to voice their opinions.

To promote school spirit a Pep Rally was held, and an Athlete-of-the-Week medallion was purchased.

We did these things and more. Presently, the things that we did and the steps that we took cannot be fully measured or realized. It is our hope that they will serve a useful purpose in the future.

Sincerely,

Hello Venetians,

The beautiful days have passed and it is very sad to say good-bye to you. I love you all so much!

At the beginning, though everything was new and strange in this school, your single "Hi" gave me confidence. Your warm affection, helpfulness, and friendship made my school life wonderful here.

From meeting and living with you, I have found that the young people from all over the world are alike. Their hopes are high, they are full of enthusiasm, and they enjoy living.

I hope that the youngsters from all over the world will get the chance to know each other better and that we will all make our world peaceful and beautiful in the future days.

Good luck to all of you in the coming years and good wishes to your next AFS Students too!

Yours Lovingly,
Shirishbala Ogale
(Shirish)

California, with its great variety in scenery, climate, and population was and is in my opinion one of the best places for a foreign student who wants to see and learn about U.S.A.'s many faces. Therefore, I was very pleased when I learned that I was going to spend a year at Venice High School. These good expectations proved to be right. Due to the great hospitality shown towards us, this year at Venice has been exciting and profitable. It has been exciting because of the many big events during the year, such as the elections on the national, local and school level, and profitable because I have increased my understanding of U.S.A. by studying its history, literature, and government, and just watching it in action. If I, during this year, have contributed to some similar understanding for my country among the people I have met, my purpose of this stay had been fulfilled.

The most important thing has not been mentioned, that the many friends I have made will keep my feelings close to this place during the years ahead, so that now when I have to learn, it is good to know that other foreign students in the future will be able to enjoy Venice as a place of friends and hospitality.

Pep Club

The year of 1964-65 saw the pep club grow from a small group of Venice diehards to over 1000 roaring Gondo backers. Under the leadership of sponsor Mr. Chong, Gondo spirit rose to an all time high. The pep club not only increased in numbers but increased in dedication to the school. The spirit displayed by the pep club helped our football team to victory.

Stage Crew

This year's stage crew was responsible for many fine assemblies. Stagecraft gives the students an opportunity to develop skill in using the tools and equipment of the stage. Eligibility for stagecraft is based on citizenship, dependability, and a willingness to work. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Wilson, this year's stage crew created realistic atmosphere for our performances.

Folk Singing Club

Though not new—in fact, it's rather old—folk singing has swept the country in the recent past. Venice's chapter of the folk singers' guild has just now begun to roll. Holding a "hootenanny" every Wednesday at noon, the club, under the tolerant leadership of Mr. Mallonee, hopes to include every Venetian who is really interested in this fine art.

Ink Slingers

Venice High Students interested in developing style in composition join the Inkslingers. Creative writing is stressed in this organization. The Inkslingers have written excellent material, excelling in an art few people have.

Chess Club

The Venice High School Chess Club under the sponsorship of Mr. Taub and Mr. Costello improve their skill in one of the oldest games in the world. Games are played weekly with a championship tournament at the end of each semester. The club helps to create a well rounded school.

Math Club

Working with numbers, equations, unknowns and symbols is the hobby of members making up the Venice High Math Club. Students with sufficient background in mathematics are eligible to join this club dedicated to learning. Varations of mathematics not discussed in the average classroom are examined by this ambitious club.

Row 1: S. Gelb, S. Berman, R. Plewa. Row 2: G. Raetz, M. Kosecoff, S. White, D. Parker, M. Fisher. Row 3: B. Kellogg, D. Avazian, A. Leeds, B. Beatie, T. Palma.

Audio-Visual

Venice teachers are thankful for the efforts of Mr. Kelly and his audio-visual crew. Films, tape recorders, and record players are available due to the crew's expert workmanship. Advanced electronic students add to their educational experience through the many excellent films projected during assignments.

Row 1: B. Howell, I. Mikawa, R. Giordani, M. Thompson. Row 2: L. Songer, R. Mato, W. Salkoski, R. O'Fallon. Row 3: J. Harper, J. Herrera, I. Ware, M. Le Blanc, F. Upchurch, B. Setter. Row 4: D. Gunter, D. Yamasaki, M. Carmona, G. Arciero, F. Mercer, Mr. Kelly.

Thespians

The Thespians are students excelling in speech, general poise, and dramatics. Under the leadership of Mrs. Roisman, the Thespians present two plays to the student body each year. These well qualified actors have taken numerous awards in the annual drama festivals.

Spanish Club

Students interested in advancing their knowledge in the romantic Spanish language join the Spanish Club sponsored by Mr. Alcáñter. The club meets weekly, studying the customs of Mexico as well as the language.

Lensmen

The lensmen are a group who are interested in photography. They have meetings in which they discuss about different types of cameras and work with them. Mr. McKinstry is the sponsor of this fine club.

"The Great Sebastians"

Under the direction of Mrs. Roisman, the W'65 Dramatic Presentation, "The Great Sebastians," was a huge success. Venice bid a tearful farewell to lovely leading lady, Jill Rice, Chiron, who was at her usual best. Dan Lott, Trevisian, fortunately was with us one more season. The Drama Class has presented us with many memorable experiences in the "World of Make Believe."

The traditionally beautiful CHRISTMAS MUSICALE is Venice High's annual gift to the community.

The 1964 presentation was the most impressive in the history of the school. Under the direction of Mrs. Mudd, Mr. Paney, and Miss Roberts, the vocal, orchestral, and dance departments were at their highest level.

The stage was beautifully decorated thanks to the excellent supervision of Mr. Wilson's Stage Crew, and Mr. Chong and Mrs. Pardoe of the Art Department.

"Scholar-quiz"

On Saturday, December 26, 1964, Joel Fishman, Jeff Moskow, Pete Saloutos, and Gerry Yoshitomi, composed the Venice High School SCHOLAR-QUIZ team in a test of skill and intellect.

The TREVISIAN boys were matched against an all girl team from Marina High, Huntington Beach, and successfully displayed their talents, winning by a score of 151-90.

Rounding out the team were alternates Aleta Osborne, Ronnie Frankel, and Don Williamson. A special thanks goes to Mr. Rotman, who coached the team, and to Mr. Arnold Shapiro, producer of SCHOLARQUIZ, and to KNXT, Channel 2.

A happy winning team watches the score mount for Venice.

The fighting spirit that whipped Westchester.

Desire, teamwork, and tough defense were the three major reasons for the Gondoliers' emergence as Western League champions in 1964. Having two fine coaches in Mr. Cullom and Mr. Barr was helpful, too! Only nine lettermen returned for the '64 season; they were joined by a score of JV lettermen, but most observers felt that Venice's highest hope might be a cellar finish. The big blue was "too small," "too slow," and hardly a contender. Those experts didn't reckon on desire. The '64 Gondos vowed to fight to the end in every game and never to give up in any game; they were as good as their words.

The first taste of action was a practice game against the Huskies of North Hollywood, and it ended in a tie. The following week saw the beginning of the league season in a battle with Hollywood's Sheiks. George King, George Schieffer, and Walter Shockley led the blue to a mighty 31-0 victory. The school buzzed with cautious optimism, but the "experts" saw just a lucky upset.

At Palisades the following week, the Dolphins were rated as probable winners since Venice was obviously due for a rude awakening. Santos Castro, Ron Villa, George Hall, Tim Ferrell, and King led an inspired bunch of Canalmen to a decisive 39-9 win. King sustained a serious injury to an ankle, causing him to miss a few games, but the size of the triumph made up for that bit of bad news. Some critics were taking favorable notice —grudgingly!— but most felt that University would lower the boom on those upstarts from Gondoville.

Football ue Champions

Watson Field was jammed with worried fans as Uni jumped off to a 14-0 lead in the opening moments of the game. It appeared that the Warriors had burst the bubble. At the half, however, it was Venice 20, University 14! Who will ever forget Bob Tripp's recovery of the ball on the Uni punt he had just blocked, and his scamper into the end zone for a desperately needed Venice touchdown. In the third quarter, Uni tied the score, but Venice again took the lead on a pass from Bob Fulenwider to Hall. At the very end of the game, the Warriors were threatening. With four seconds remaining, Jack Jacobs broke through the line to hit the Uni quarterback hard enough to jar the ball out of his hands and end the Westwooders' threat and the game. It was teamwork combined with great individual efforts that had put Venice in position to challenge the accepted giants of the Western League, Westchester's Comets. But there remained a small matter of traveling to Hamilton to meet the Yankees.

Hamilton High was the scene of a near disaster for Venice. The blue offense could not get off the ground—nor move on it—while Hamilton tried to break the Venice defense. The one touchdown the Yankees scored seemed that it might be enough. Finally, in the waning moments of the fourth quarter, Roggie Washington raced around end for a Venice score and a tie game. Some I-told-you-so's were heard in the land, some confidence diminished, and the monolith of fourth ranked in Los Angeles Comets was on its way to our friendly village. The experts were lying in wait with poised metaphors to chronicle the expected debacle.

The Westchester game was for the championship. There were no empty seats in Watson Field as the game got under way, and it proved to be one of the best ever played on that field. Defense seemed to be the factor for both teams. The famed Comet steamroller moved well between the twenty yard lines but could not quite score. The Venice offense had problems of its own, but was able to spring Shockley free on an end scamper and six points, the only touchdown of the game. Venice had won and the defense had done it. The Gondo defenders stopped the Comets three times inside the Venice four yard line! Not for thirteen years had Gondoland tasted the championship. All that remained was to beat a very good Fairfax team.

The Lions of Melrose Avenue never knew what hit them. In the very first minutes of the game, the Venetians jumped off to a lead, and they never let up until the final score read 30-0. There followed a non-league tilt against Lowell High, of suburban Whittier, in which Coach Cullom gave his juniors and sophomores some experience in losing. The future held the City Playoffs and our round one opponent, Reseda's Regents.

The Reseda game was the end of the Venice hopes for 1964. Perhaps it was just midnight for the Cinderella team; perhaps it was any one of many other factors, but the Venice team fumbled thirteen times and lost the ball on eleven of them. Desire never waned. The team stayed in the game, fighting hard, but finally bowed in defeat. Venice High has never been prouder of any squad.

1964 was a year for building. Only four returning lettermen — Gary Mitchell, Dean Ogami, Chuck Taylor, and Jack Taylor — were not enough to perform miracles. Coaches Keith and Rose produced many happy moments for Gondo fans, despite the team's less than brilliant record. Inexperienced players lost some heartbreaking games, but some tremendous individual efforts were put forth by Ogami, who became one of the top backs in Western League, Earl Tanchuck, Joe Gonzales, Ken Pond, and Phil Lee; these in addition to Mitchell and the Taylors who added the seasoning they had to have to letter in 1963. Every man gave 100 per cent all the time; even in losing, they never disgraced the good name of Venice.

The final scores of all games played indicate that Venice made 51 against the combined opponents' total of 54!

The only word that can be used to describe the 1964 Varsity Basketball Team is courageous. There were no returning Varsity lettermen, and the squad was comprised of last year's J.V. and B Lettermen. The team averaged around 5' 9" in height. Though lacking experience and height, they had that never-give-up attitude.

Some of the top seniors on the team were Jack Jennison, Gary Schutz, Bob Eggleston, Terry Miller, Ron Bernstein, Gilbert Ishizuka, and Jamey Mazzota. Jennison, an all-league candidate at the beginning of the year, received a serious ankle injury which hindered his playing throughout the season. The top juniors for the 1964 season were Mackey Simpson, Doug Smith, Steve Webber, and Barry Seems.

The 1964 Varsity Basketball Team was not a league champion, although many of their games were very close; however, their outstanding attitude made them the best in Western League.

Simpson rings up 2 points for Venice.

The Varsity Baseball story for 1965 was tense, cliff-hanging suspense. At press time, the big Blue horsehidors were fighting for first place in Western League. At the same time, a pair of strategic losses might have caused them to end the season in the cellar!

Some outstanding individual performances were turned in by Gary Schutz, first baseman; Richard Tuman, left fielder; Richard Momii, pitcher; and Steve Bliss, pitcher. Yet only fine team play—which always characterized Venice teams—could have brought them to the point they reached in 1965. To Coach Duron in his debut as varsity mentor, the heartiest congratulations of the entire school. To the boys, and their captains, Gary Schutz and Vince Valencia, heartfelt thanks for bringing glory to the name of Venice High.

Destiny dealt the Gondos a second place finish in Western League, but consolation came with the fine showing they made in the City playoffs.

The GAA—Girls' Athletic Association—means healthy exercise and loads of fun for hundreds of Venice High girls every year. Among the sports participated in by Gondo girls as part of the GAA program are bowling, golf, tennis, baseball, volleyball, basketball, badminton, dance, swimming and anything else the fine teaching staff can dream up.

"Crazy Olympics"

Tossing a water-filled balloon around is always good for a laugh.

A tripod is supposed to be stable!

It's Babs by a leg!

"Crazy Olympics," a part of the Girls' Week festivities, was held on Watson Field before a huge throng of screaming Venetians. As always, this traditional event was a highlight of the week.

Well Jodie,
the time has come. You've waited for this for 12 years, &
your wish came true. I hope
now that as you face the world,
that you'll find a beautiful world
Jodie, & and enjoy life, see how it
